Violation of the neutral zone in Greece
Peace-negotiations progress unfavourably
The Great Storm in Paris.

Berlin, 19th.—Yesterday, after unveiling the Monument to William the First, at Cologne, the Emperor went to Bielefeld and made a speech in which he praised the industry of Westphalia, and said that the greatness of Germany was due to its manufacturing industries, which the Government was determined to protect.

Paris, 19th.—The French and Venezuelan Governments have arrived at a satisfactory settlement of all questions between them and have signed a commercial treaty on the basis of minimum tariffs.
Antwerp, 19th.—There was a violent storm last night on the Belgian coast.
Several fishing and coasting vessels have been lost with their crews.

Rome, 19th.—The Deputies voted the Navy estimates to-day, and also a supplementary credit of seven millions of lire for the same service.

Constantinople, 19th.—The efforts of the Ambassadors to make peace between Greece and Turkey have as yet proved fruitless. At their last conference with the Turkish Minister for Foreign Affairs on Thursday, the latter made fresh objections to the pretensions of the Powers, and nothing could be arrived at.

Paris, 19th.—The French Minister at Peking has secured from the Imperial Government further important commercial and political concessions on the frontier of Tonkin.

London, 19th.—The news from India about the earthquakes is very bad. Over 6000 people have perished, and the danger done to property is considerable. The Queen has telegraphed to the Governor General her sympathy for the families of the victims.

London, 19th.—Preparations for the Jubilee are going on all over the United Kingdom. Foreign Princes from a large number of European arrive daily. The streets are all adorned with triumphal arches, and flags are already flying from many of the houses.

Rome, 19th.—It is expected that the Deputies will finish the debate on the Budget in a few days. Zanardelli's announcement that Verdi was not so seriously ill as reported was received with loud cheers.

London, 19th.—The Press here comments on the news received last night from Washington, referring to President McKinley having resolved to send an ultimatum to the Spanish Government with regard to Cuba. The President has entrusted General Woodford, Minister to Madrid, to insist on the Spanish Government granting Cuba Home Rule, and further warning to advise the same Government that the States will interfere in case Spain refuses to accede.

Paris, 19th.—Twenty people were killed by the cyclone last night, while over 80 persons injured are being attended in the hospitals. The inhabitants of Courbevoie, Asnières and other places fled, shortly after the storm burst. The Fire Brigade and several detachments of troops worked all last night clearing away debris which blocked up the streets.

Calcutta, 19th.—The Fetes intended to celebrate Queen Victoria's Reign have been suspended in view of the loss of life and damage caused by earthquakes:
thousands of people are in absolute want.
The Viceroy and Jubilee Committee have agreed to spend the money intended for the fetes in relieving the victims.

Paris, 19th.—The Prince and Princess of Naples left this city for Calais at 11 o'clock to-day for London via Dover. M.
Melne, M. Hanotaux, and one of the President's aides-de-camp accompanied the Royal visitors to the station.

THIS MORNING'S TELEGRAMS.
(Received after Midnight)

London, 19th.—The colonial contingents, arrived here to attend the Jubilee fetes, marched to-day through the East End.
The weather was magnificent.

La Hae, 19th.—All the squadrons leave to-day for Candia, off which port the British men-of-war are anchored, to take part in the Jubilee fetes organized by the English Admiral.

St. Petersburg, 19th.—The official organ, also to confer here on the epoch. The Victorian era embraces the most glorious period of British History. The annals of empire prior to the Queen's accession were mere records of war. It has been reserved for the present beloved occupant of the throne to reign more than 60 years and

SPAIN, CUBA, HAWAII AND THE UNITED STATES.

As the telegrams yesterday morning regarding the instructions given to the new United States Minister to Spain seemed to us to be of rather a serious nature, one of our staff went to see the original copies in English, as received from the N. Y. Herald, and we find that they are to the following effect:—

The task of General Stewart L. Woodford, the new Minister to Madrid, is divided into three parts. As to these, the Washington correspondent of the New York Herald is able to give accurate information. The first mission will be to present a demand for a suitable indemnity for the death of Dr. Ruiz. The second task to pave the way for the making of a distinct proposition for the freedom of Cuba. The third phase, the presentation of a distinct proposal from the United States as to the disposition of Cuba. The President impresses strongly on the new Minister the necessity of making a firm stand and convince Spanish Statesmen that the Government is powerless to avert much longer some action on the part of the United States.

General Woodford is to insist, to the Spanish authorities in Madrid and strongly impress on them, that the States does not desire to take advantage of Spain's troubles to bring about the annexation of Cuba to the States, but unless Spain makes a move toward meeting the inevitable and towards giving Cuba self-government, the United States will be compelled to take action. General Woodford dined with the President on Monday evening.

It seems somewhat strange that so much of the tenor of the new Minister's instructions should have been made public, and that too before his leaving for his post, and we should not advise our readers to place too much confidence as to their being exactly as stated, despite the correspondent's assertion that the information given is accurate. If the instructions of the Minister are as stated, he is charged with the delivery of something that falls little, if any, short of an ultimatum.

To those who doubt that the United States Government is on the eve of adopting a new policy on the Cuban question, we submit the following item, sent by one of the best informed correspondents in the States to a leading British daily during the last days of May:—

"The question of Cuba in its relation to the United States continues to engross the attention of the President and the Cabinet, and action of some kind cannot, it is evident, be much longer delayed; but every proposal for solving the difficulty is immediately met by a host of bustling contingencies which form for the time effective barriers to progress, and Mr. McKinley is in a quandary. He continues opposed to recognition of the insurgents as belligerents, and to any other step which would or might involve war, and is not, therefore, in need of the advice of those who never tire of impressing upon him that war would bring financial disaster in its train. Moreover, four members of the Cabinet are firmly opposed to any warlike policy. At the same time, every mail brings to the White House and to Ministers floods of letters from all parts of the Union urging immediate action on behalf of the struggling Cubans. It is stated from Washington that the President is only awaiting a report from Mr. Calhoun, his Commissioner in Cuba, before again offering Spain the good offices of the United States Government in the direction of peace. This offer will probably include the purchase proposal of which I notified you recently, and, though its acceptance is not expected, the hope is felt that it might now lead to a compromise, finally resulting in the complete autonomy of Cuba. Speaker Reed in the meantime is doing what he can to prevent the House of Representatives adding to the embarrassment which the Senate has already caused to the President in the matter, and to this end he has resolved to withhold from the consideration of the House Senator Morgan's belligerency resolution until Mr. McKinley has declared his intentions in another Message to Congress."

A Washington telegram says that the attitude of Japan promises to become a serious factor in the Hawaiian situation. The grievances which formed the basis for the diplomatic representations against Hawaii recently instituted by Japan have been greatly added to by the act of the Hawaiian Government in signing the annexation treaty with the United States without first consulting Japan. Diplomatic relations between the two countries are very strained.

Of course, if Japan takes any active action against Hawaii the United States will be at once brought into the affair. It would seem to us that the sooner this annexation affair is carried forward to completion the better it will be for all concerned.

On Friday we mentioned the Hawaiian annexation as having some bearing on the control of the proposed canal through the Isthmus of Panama. Yesterday's telegrams from N. York now inform us that the shareholders of the Maritime Canal Company that purchased the privileges and properties of the Nicaragua Canal Company, have authorized gold 5% bonds to the amount of $15,000,000, to be issued, but only as work on the canal makes it necessary. So immediately after the announcement of the plan for Hawaiian annexation, comes word that work on the canal is to be again pushed forward.

JUBILEE NOTES.

Campana, 18th June 1897.
To the Editor of the STANDARD:

Dear Sir,
Amongst the various notices which have appeared in your columns and those of your contemporaries of the events to come off in commemoration of Her Most Gracious Majesty's glorious reign of 60 years, there is one little spot, where beats the heart of many a loyal Britisher, in which great preparations are being made to celebrate the occasion with due honour. I refer to the town of Campana. A meeting of the British residents was called, presided over by Mr. Pearce, the Locom. Supt. of the B.A. and R. Railway, and the idea of doing honour to Her Majesty's Jubilee in a fitting manner was most enthusiastically taken up, the final result being as follows:—

On the 22nd inst. it is proposed to hold a picnic on a grand scale at Otamendi, where all the Britishers and their families are to be conveyed in special trains, which have been gratuitously placed at their disposal by the B.A. and R. Railway Co. An excellent programme of British Sports has been drawn up, with events for both young and old—prizes and presents commemorative of the occasion being provided for all. A sumptuous lunch will be spread and partaken of in a commodious tent, erected for the purpose. The number anticipated on the occasion is somewhere between 350 and 400 persons. A salute of 21 guns is to be fired off at early morning on the 22nd, and at night the offices and Mechanic's Institute connected with the Railway are to be illuminated with coloured lights, while a special band from Buenos Aires has been engaged for the occasion, so that we are looking forward to a most enjoyable time of it. On the evening of the 25th, Coronation Day, a ball has been arranged for at the Instituto, which promises to be well attended. On the evening of the 8th of July, a grand concert and dramatic entertainment is to take place at the lecture hall of the Instituto, for which a most attractive programme has been drawn up, the leading feature of which is the production of a new play written for the occasion by two of our leading Britishers of Campana. The foregoing three events have all been arranged in connection with the general festivities, the financial returns from which are to be handed to the British Hospital. "The Hope of Campana" Lodge of Good Templars also intend doing honour to the occasion by holding a special meeting on the 24th inst. at which there is to be feasting, music and general rejoicing. So you will see, Mr. Editor, that the Britishers of Campana will be in touch with their fellow countrymen all over the world in doing honour to "The Queen God bless her!" Trusting you will be able to find a corner in your valuable paper for the above, I remain, dear Sir, yours truly,
Henry Martin.

JUBILEE DONATION.

B. Aires, June 19th, 1897.
To the Editor of the STANDARD:

Dear Sir,
The Diamond Jubilee Committee are desirous that the Commemorative Day (Tuesday June 22nd), should be marked in some way at the Boys' Orphanage. The Committee have thought that a suitable method would be to give some special dainties to the inmates on that day. I have pleasure in enclosing $50.00 for this object, and the Committee hope that there will be no objection to use this money for the above purpose.

I am,
Yours faithfully,
J. W. Fleming,
Hon. Sec.

The Sub-Committee Circus Entertainment desire us to state that all tickets not called for yesterday were posted to respective addresses; also that it is earnestly requested that all children belonging to Day and Sunday Schools should arrive at theatre with their teachers who hold the numbered seats tickets, as otherwise the children may not easily find their corresponding seats.

SPORT.

NOTES AND NOTIFICATIONS.

There is very little to be said about today's card, as though events have filled well and there should be a good day's sport, there is nothing out of the common in any of the events set out for discussion. The Classic, the Production Nacional Stakes, has most of the promising 2-year olds engaged, including Orange, Balcarce, Tunuyan, Pillito, Kean, Alarife, Abrojo and Florin. We must pin our colours to Balcarce till we see him stick his toes in which he has not as yet shown any signs of doing, and would recommend Pillito as a good place investment. In the opening chorus Voltigeur seems to stand out alone, while Noblezza should prove the pick in the next. Acero has such a fair turn of speed and such a light impost that he will take a lot of beating in the long distance; if anything does head him, it should be Esfinge. Orbe might possibly prove the best in the gentlemen's race, though he is not a stayer and has 2000 metres to go. The sprint is a puzzle; Oriente, Tanager and Tetarra are hard to separate, though of the three we fancy the second, whilst Hagonote and Oriol command the final. Our selections are therefore:—

Aracano	stakes Voltigeur.
Edelweiss	" Noblezza.
Produccion Naal.	" Balcarce, Pillito.
Atleta	" Acero, Esfinge.
Gentleman Riders	" Orbe, Mouk.
Ontario	" Tanager, Oriente.
Purran	" Hagonote, Oriol.

THEATRES AND AMUSEMENTS.

Another triumph for the gifted and beautiful Signorina Cesira Ferrani in Massenet's celebrated opera "Manon." We can but repeat that her acting is perfect and fascinating, and that her silver voice is trained to such an extent that the enthusiastic public acclaimed her after each act, and even cheered her during the scenes. After the third act the curtain rose four times for her to receive the ovation accorded by her admirers, together with de Lucia and the famous Maestro, Mascaroni, the genius of the company.

Whatever may have taken place in other parts of this world of ours, it is quite certain that Buenos Aires has never witnessed such a sight as that presented in the San Martin yesterday afternoon. Thousands of happy faces, belonging to the Orphans and poor children, who are so well looked after and cared for by the many charitable ladies in our midst, beamed with delight. The house rang with childish applause, no matter how slight the effort on part of the performers. If Tony scratched his face, or Paco Busto rubbed his head, or King Frank fell over, it was all the same; the little ones applauded with all their might, and the infection spread to the artists, who, so encouraged, did their very utmost to please.

The three thousand, and more, children who attended, were well placed, the pit and boxes being filled with girls, whilst the upper part of the house was allotted to the boys. With regard to the performance, little need be said. All the best acts, by the best members of the company, were included, and when the pantomime of Cinderella was put on the delight of the little ones was unbounded.

Previous to the performance the Police band performed outside the theatre, and in the ring during the interval, whilst all the children were being regaled with cakes and other good things.

Frank Brown has done many acts of charity, but this surpasses everything, and his kindly thought and gracious act was duly recognized by the Committee, two children presenting him with a handsome engrossed parchment scroll, which was signed by all the ladies who were on the Committee.

All honour, therefore, to Frank Brown and his company, who, by yesterday's action, have left an impression which can never be obliterated from the minds of the poor children, who experienced such a thoroughly happy afternoon.

That most popular of clowns and the idol of all the children in Buenos Aires has again come to the front and will give a performance in the San Martin on Monday the 21st inst. for the benefit of the Society of Railway employees. The fine Police Band will play some of the choicest music of its repertoire during the performance. Bravo Frank Brown!

LIST OF HOUSES CLOSING ON 22nd.

EDITOR'S TABLE.

The week wound up yesterday in mud, mire and confusions of disgust with the Clerk of the Weather, business went dull, except for the shoe-black and in British circles the Jubilee was the "do de pecho" note. Jubilee here, Jubilee there, "Figaro qui, Figaro la!" is nothing to it; and we were up to the roots of our hair all day in Jubilee literature, interviews, etc., etc. How we survive to tell the tale we cannot say, but there is evidently a difficulty that shapes the STANDARD's ends, rough here them as circumstances may. The news of the day was nothing very hair-standing from any quarter. The Sublime Sultan is said to have at last yielded to the Powers about Thessaly, and peace with Greece is considered to be at hand. Dear old Verdi is on his dying bed, to the fearful regret of Italian opera-goers all over the world. The cyclone in Paris appears to have given the "City of Palaces and Perilous" a pretty considerable shake, and let it in for a lot of its treasure in damage done. The really sensational rumour of the day came from Concepcion del Uruguay, and was to the effect that General Villar blew his brains out after his recent defeat by Lamas and Saravia.

CARMEN JUBILÆUM MAJUS

IN HONOREM

VICTORIA ALEXANDRINE

BRITT. REG. IMPERATR. IND.

QUÆ

HODIE ANNOS JAM SEXAGINTA REGNAVIT

A.D. XII. KAL. JUL. MDCCCXCVII.

i. When from the sailor-king's fingers spent
The British sceptre fell,
Roused from her couch, the pale "Maid of Kent"
Firm grasped the ivory spell.

ii. Three-score momentous fleet years have sped
Since yon transcendent morn;
Silvery spray now bedecks that head
Where rests the crown, still worn.

iii. Time's frosty breath hath not chilled the soul,
Nor grief the spirit slain;
Lonely the grandest, all-glorious role Of Queen Victoria's reign.

iv. Patriot fervor! of duty's claims
On British soil o'er free;
Nelson's grand motto her heart enthralls,
As Mary's Chivalry lead.

v. Aras Argentinæ have thrice been sown
On British soil o'er free;
Noble and daring the deeds then shown Beneath queens glorious thrones.

vi. Swift as Decalogue eddies up-rise Immortals, Eden-dight;
Galaxies, set in undying skies
The firmament to light.

vii. Tabor and Stuart with envy gaze
On rich Victorian spoils;
Ever supreme, in her peerless ways
Our Gaelic sovereign toils.

viii. Girdles her empire the Orb around,
Her feet the world's scene sweep;
Learning and freedom and wealth abound
In glad Hesperian homes.

ix. Beloved Victoria! deign to listen To thy subjects' humble lay
From where the waves of silver glister
'Neath a sapphire dome by day.

x. On wings of thought thine exiled hover O'er the land of beauty's beams
Where rules our glorious mother;
Sweet Utopia of our dreams!

xi. No distance our devotion shatters, Ovalrons our love for thee;
No change of clime thine image weathers,
Graven deep as seamless sea.

xii. Nor we alone—all other races
Have thy orphans unfurled;
The arcady thy person graces
Is the homage of a world.

xiii. Incarnate spirit of compassion!
Mercy's wand thou waviest bright;
Unleashed chief of British nation!
Rod of empire wieldest right.

xiv. A Golden Age hast thou created;
Annals human none such claim;
Nor long as Clío's scrolls' unsealed Shall another vie in fame.

—J. W. WHITE.

We have to congratulate Major Pearce of the Salvation Army on his excellent idea of supplementing the advantage of the Night Rejoicing in Calle Pavon 1563, by providing a mid-day meal for the moderate sum of 10 cents. With the cold, damp weather, distress has increased, and not only the homeless but the poor may avail of the Refuge and apply for the meal. Tickets may be obtained from Major Pearce, Headquarters, Rivadavia 3290. We should advise persons who desire to distribute relief to purchase tickets or orders on the Refuge or Shelter.

More Jubilee literature! We had yesterday the pleasure of fingering and perusing a special copy of the Sun, of July 10, 1838, a coronation number, printed in gold letters. The state of preservation is wonderful, and we should say the number is unique in South America. Persons interested may see the copy in our Museum (Open from 2 p.m. to 4 p.m.)

At a meeting held by several interested in the cattle and sheep import and export business and estancieros in the mart of Messrs Funes & Lagos, last night, it was decided to give a breakfast in the rooms, which have been kindly offered by Messrs. Funes and Lagos, on the 22nd inst at noon and it is to be hoped that all those interested in the trade will join in doing honour to the 60th anniversary of the reign of Queen Victoria. Mr. Carlos Nelson occupied the chair. All those desirous of joining may send their names to Carlos Nelson, chairman at Funes and Lagos, or to Sec. at 195 Calle Rococo, quists. The following gentlemen were among those present:—Messrs. Rudolf Lugon, Augusto Freers, John Macdonald, W. Ewart, E. B. Perkins, Thomas Kincaid, Hamilton and Saunders, James Sidney, R. P. Fraser, Julio Schmidt, R. Vardaye (Spurr and Lagos), T. Murray, Skinner, T. A. Martin, and John Frieler.

The Jubilee service at St. John's church to-day will be the most imposing ever held in that sacred edifice, and the congregation should make it a point to go early. Unless seat-holders be in their places before 10.45 a.m., their seats will be open to the public.

Our esteemed contemporary the Revue Illustrée has a splendid portrait of the Queen in its last issue; also those of the three best looking men on the Jubilee Committee to wit, the Honble W. Barrington, Mr. Inglis Runciman, and the Rev. J. W. Fleming B.D. The number will be snapped up like hot cakes.

We call attention to our old friend Dr. White's beautiful Jubilee ode in another column. He has never written anything better in prose or verse, though a master of both.

We have to thank Messrs. Galli Bros. and Mr. Charles MacKern for late papers from England by the Nile.

The Executors of the Port contractors Messrs. Walker and Co. will entertain on Thursday next at the Café de Paris, at a Jubilee dinner, the Argentine Department of Engineers, the engineering staff of the port works and other gentlemen. We hear it will be a sumptuous affair.

By all that's melodious! More and more music for the STANDARD's venerable piano! Professor Pini, who occupies such fuse. If you do, you will set the STANDARD weeping again by day and by night, not for a week, as our Unkind Neighbour the Montevideo Times has done, but for six months at a stretch.

Her Majesty's popular Vice-Consul in Rosario, Mr. Hugh Mallet, requests us to inform the English public of Rosario that he will be "at home" at the Consulate there on the 22nd inst., from 1 p.m. to 3 p.m.

The Lincoln Gazette gives a long account of the imposing funeral of the late Mrs. Troman, mother of Mr. Richard Troman, so well known in this market. The remains were interred in the family vault of the late Mr. J. F. Burton, in the churchyard of St. Peter-in-Eastergate. The deceased lady was 79 years of age. The principal mourners were Mr. E. M. Burton and Mrs. Ford, Mr. Loftus Barthorpe and Mrs. Barthorpe, Mr. Arthur Burton, and Dr. Ford, Mr. F. M. Burton and Mr. W. E. Parker, Dr. G. M. Lowe, and the servants at Eastgate. There were also present Col. Glen, Mr. R. Mason, Mr. E. White and the Revs. A. R. Maddison and Barrett. The following is a list of those who sent floral tokens of respect:—Mr. E. M. Burton, Mrs. and the Misses Mitchinson, Mr. Arthur L. Burton, Mrs. Mason, Mr. and Mrs. E. White, Loftus and Ella Barthorpe, Lieut. Col. Finch Noyes, Mrs. and Miss Danby, Ada Edenborough and Lily Neame, Maude Phillips, Clara and Mabel Barthorpe, Mrs. Swan, the servants at Eastgate, Dr. and Mrs. R. H. Ford, Miss and Mr. Arthur Leslie-Melville, George and Gertrude Barthorpe, Captain and Mrs. Cecil Eardley Wilmot, Miss M. H. Holmes, Mrs. Barthorpe, the Rev. H. H. and Mrs. Adcock, Mrs. Charles Brook, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Scorer, Dr. G. M. Lowe, Mrs. A. B. Burton, Mrs. Robt. and the Misses Swan, Colonel and Mrs. Archibald Glen, Mr. W. E. Parker, Mrs. Stitt-Thomson, Mrs. and the Misses White etc.

The publication in Spanish is announced in London by the well-known publishers, Messrs. E. and F. N. Spon (Jacobson agent for the River Plate) of a new book, entitled "Las Obras de Salubridad de la Ciudad de Buenos Aires, cloacas, desagües, y provision de agua," written and edited by the well-known C.E., Mr. R. C. Parsons, which book is likely to be much enquired for by engineers and the general public.

The course of lectures given by Dr. Pilgrim at the rooms of the English Literary Society having been concluded, an examination was held by Dr. O'Connor on the 10th, when fourteen gentlemen presented themselves, of whom twelve passed, giving great satisfaction to the examiner. The successful candidates were Messrs. Bond, Cooke, Graham, Henderson, Hughes, Lomas, Porcher, Postlethwaites, Pullin, Mace, Tipping and Tyre, who will now receive the certificate of the St. John's Ambulance Association, and also the medal of the Sociedad Argentina de Primeros Auxilios, authorizing them to render first aid. Messrs. Kinch and Pope also presented themselves and passed their second examination.

Jonathan's latest invention is an apparatus for hurrying through doors slowly moving people too lazy to keep up with the procession. It catches them gently from behind and shoves them along rapidly without, however, causing them to lose their equilibrium. We wish some enterprising Yankee would come along and set up a similar machine in our narrow streets, in order to "get a move" on to our sauntering population.

The movement initiated some time ago by some of the head masters of our English schools for unification of teaching methods and affiliation with the College of Preceptors, London, has now been crowned with success. The Dean of the College has approved of the establishment of an examination centre in Buenos Aires and of the nomination of the Rev. Polhem Ogle, M.A., as representative examiner. The Local Secretary for the centre is Mr. A. Stuart Pennington of the San Fernando English School, who will be pleased to give any information to any private student who desires to present himself for examination. The first examination under this arrangement will be held in Buenos Aires in December next.

Special Notice.

The only service at the American Church to-day will be the Jubilee Thanksgiving Service this morning at 11 a.m., when Dr. McLaughlin will preach, and the music, as published yesterday, will be sung. The evening service is suspended to unite in the Jubilee Service at St. Andrew's. The church has been beautifully decorated with British and American flags and evergreens and flowers.

FASHIONS AND ACTUALITIES

Miss Lily, who piques herself on a certain amount of style, and who was the other day assisting at her mother's toilette, asked her for what reason she put on such beautiful underlinen, that nobody could admire! With such ideas about the toilette, we may go very far but it is not so uncommon as one might think, with those whom I will call the false elegants, because for a really elegant lady there is not one detail of her toilette which is not the object of great attention. So with Lily's system a lady should wear ordinary shoes, because with the long dress it is nearly impossible to perceive them; but a lady who is refused pays great attention to this part of her toilette, and will always have shoes bought from the best importers. Who is the coquettish lady who for one moment will bear the idea of buying her shoes at the first shop she passes when out walking? No, she goes straight to Rosette's, for instance, because everybody knows that at this house you find only goods of the best quality and of the latest fashion. I make no pretension to induce you to Rosette's, which is so well known here, in Calle Corrientes, between Florida and Maipu, for so long time; but you are, dear lady readers, on the eve of celebrating the Diamond Jubilee of your Queen, and surely must want some new shoes. Go then to this shop, you will find a beautiful assortment of little white satin ball-shoes, or which are also the great fashion, black satin pebbled shoes, with silk stockings to match. With regard to the great trade of this house Mr. Rosette was obliged to enlarge it, and now the customers are sure to find there not only shoes and boots for gentlemen, ladies and children, but a beautiful assortment of woolen goods from the best makers in Europe.

As I am speaking to you, Mesdames, about the Jubilee of your Queen, and of the fêtes which your patriotism makes it a duty for you to attend, I must give you a piece of advice. Before taking any decision about your toilette, do me the favour to pay a visit to the 'Nueva Mercadería Almana' in Calle Piedad near the corner of Florida. I am sure you will send me thanks for the idea, because you will find there invariably some knick-knacks, some fancies to adorn and complete your toilette. It is really a bazaar this house, and the proprietor has always fresh novelties and little fantasies of the best taste to tempt and to please their visitors and customers.

It is always for a lady an advantage to visit this house, which is so much in favour, should it be only to find there the particular idea peculiar to herself alone, which sheds round her that personality by which she may be always distinguished from her sisters.

To possess originality—that is an immense advantage for an elegant lady. It is by virtue of this originality, the great art of knowing how to dress differently from all the rest of the world, that certain grandes dames are accorded the sceptre of fashion and their decisions make the law for the 'beau monde' of London and Paris. They have a horror of beaten paths; but are gifted with an artistic sense, and they prefer to discover the delicate perfume which does not resemble any of those generally used. So if, by chance, they happen to come to Buenos Aires and pay a visit to the Ciudad de Londres I am sure they will find in the mass of all the beautiful things exhibited on the counters, some particular flowered silk which no one has noticed and which, confided to the clever hands of Lombardi and cut according to his advice, would become on their shoulders the 'chef-d'œuvre' of the season. I insist on this advantage of this individual 'cachet,' that certain elegant ladies know how to impress on their toilette because here we suffer from the very opposite fault, finding easier to follow the beaten track, not straying from the flock, just like the sheep of Paris.

Grey dresses are all the rage, and we see all the ladies with grey dresses. It is just the same with the furs. What fur is this year not in favour?

We are not happy till we possess it. All this is simply habit, just as everybody breakfasts at mid-day, takes tea at 4 and dines at 7.

Apropos of tea, I must recommend to you a brand which is remarkable for its exquisite perfume and agreeable aroma. The guarantee of the accuracy of my assertion is that the importers are the firm of Gandolfi Moss and Co., who also receive a large assortment of other excellent things about which I will speak to you another day. The tea in question is known by the name of 'El Zorro' and is blended especially for tea-drinkers in this country. It can be bought in all the best groceries in Buenos Aires.

ON 'CHANGE.

Saturday, June 19th 1897.
Gold Premium

First Rise..... 194.90
Second Rise..... 194.90

Anything to equal the stagnation on 'Change at present it would be hard to realize that such a position as this can endure long. But that it will be enduring there can be little doubt, as things have settled down into such a slough of despond that there is no moving them.

Ring succeeds ring, day succeeds day, week follows week, but there is no change in gold; there it is, and there it sticks, with the brokers grumbling and the market wondering. Even the little business doing, or rather posted, is not genuine, as whether to beguile the passing hour or move the current, 'gatos' are sprung as thick as flies.

Discussing the sickening monotony of the first hour's business today a leading English broker remarked with disgust thinly disguised in his accents:—"See that! Think it's genuine?"

Why of that? A million done for cash 400,000 is a monstrous "gato"—a Bolsa lie. And so things drag along without the barest trouble or stir on the water, dull, leaden, dispiriting. If there were only a semblance of convulsion, a facsimile of upheaval, a faint at double-somersaulting, Bolsa life would not be as terribly dreary; but the anemia is throttling the market as fiercely as that fiend sickness Diphtheria, and there is not a kick left in the poor "ole" mule. Gold is dead, stocks helpless, exchange at a stand-still, produce drooping.

And this has to go on for a month or two still. It is well, of course, that it is no worse, but it is none the less ferociously slow and drear.

Business in gold at the first hour barely topped 1/2 of a million dollars, of which over a half was done for cash alone. The price opened at 294.70 fluctuated up and down a beggarly 10 cents, drew up painfully to 295, and closed at 294.90 sellers.

About 20 cents backwardation ruled the rate for end of month, and 10 cents contango that for July, though so little was done that it would be absurd to call it business. Stocks were very quiet. Some National G's were done at 84, Municipal 97, bonds at 77, Catalinas at 7.70 and Santa Fé Consols at 39.40, though there seem to be no buyers for the latter over 39. Some French banks were done at 75, but Constructors declined to 8.80, probably over the news published in our last issue. Absurd schemes of that kind will never help even kite-flying. Provincial cedulas were totally neglected.

The following is a summary of the business effected at the first ring to-day:

$ 478,000 cash at 294.70-60-90-90-90-90

77-90-80-80-90-295-294.90.

As regards finances, the note of the day is the declaration of a morning colleague that Minister Escalante seriously contemplates a partial Conversion and Unification scheme, hinting that it is a gilded pill to induce the holders of the Provincial Bonds to increase their stake in Argentina by taking bigger lots of Unified Bonds than those which would be assigned releasing their present holding. We think there are several reasons for quarantining such a report. In the first place, the forcing of a new loan on the bondholders in such a way would be little less than black-mailing, and would certainly be "infra-dig," which must damn such an operation from the start; again, it is not at all likely that with all his energies and resources engaged in the difficult task of making ends meet, Dr. Escalante would contemplate a measure of such great magnitude, especially as we must presume that President Uriburu, with his term of office fast drawing to a close, would be reluctant to broach an undertaking which would metamorphose the whole system of National financing. His successor might not be of accord in thinking that the Nation should assume Provincial indebtedness, or even if he were, it is only natural to suppose that the possibility of President leaving the brunt of the "jornada." Again, it would be as well in tackling such a business to do it thoroughly, round up the Provincial loans, trim the National ones, make one great issue to cover all. But there should be no baiting or compulsion about it, no black-mailing however covert,

THE VICTORIA SAILORS' HOME.

The Queen Victoria Commemoration Committee have begun sending outward the circular published at foot, or is an appeal to all British subjects, to fill descendants of Britishers, and to all sympathisers, to subscribe for the erection of a memorial to commemorate an unique event in British History, and that memorial is to take the shape of a Sailors' Home—there would be no nobler tribute to the sovereign who rules the waves than a refuge for the toilers of the sea. In the loyal, charitable, unsectarian object let all join hands and answer the appeal according to their respective means.

Apart from the great event that the Memorial will commemorate at the gates of our city, within hail of the docks, there is in this resolution of the British residents to build a Sailors' Home a breadth of view, a field of action, that silences all differences, and must weld all the elements of the community into one common aspiration to see the generous idea immediately carried out. We have no doubt that all will respond to the charitable call, and help in the cause.

The following is the circular sent out by the Committee to the British residents and descendants of Britishers in the Republic:—

Commemoration of the 60th Anniversary of Queen Victoria's Accession.

COMMITTEE:
 Hon. W. A. C. Barrington, Chairman,
 T. S. Boadle,
 F. W. Barrow,
 Ronald Bridgett,
 John Dunn,
 John Drysdale,
 Rev. J. W. Fleming,
 P. Ham,
 A. Mackintosh,
 H. M. Mills,

 J. F. Roberts,

 R. Inglis Runciman,
 H. C. Thompson,
 Rymer O. Watson,
 W. Warden,
 J. C. Zimmermann.

At the meeting held in Prince George's Hall on 21st April, 1897, a Committee was appointed to consider various schemes proposed for the commemoration of the 60th anniversary of the accession to the throne of Her Majesty Queen Victoria.

The Committee submitted its report to a general meeting held on 6th May, 1897, and recommended the following:—

1.—A congratulatory telegram to the Queen, and a request to employers to give their employees a holiday.
 2.—A free entertainment at the Circus for children.
 3.—Performance of the opera "H. M. S. Pinafore."
 4.—The erection of a Sailors' Home as a permanent memento of the event, to be handed over to the Sailors' Home Committee on completion.

These proposals were adopted. The above Committee has been appointed to carry them into effect, and it now appeals to those who sympathise with the object for subscriptions to the fund required for the purpose.

The land for the proposed Sailors' Home has been granted by Congress free of charge and for the erection and furnishing of the building it is estimated that a sum of about $90,000 will be required. Statistics submitted to the Committee relative to the working of the present Home (the rent of which is $300 per month) show that with a more suitable building, free of rent and properly equipped, the institution would be almost self-supporting, so that, while it will be a lasting memento of the event which is unique in the history of the British Empire, it is not likely that there will be an increased call on the annual subscribers for its maintenance. Appended will be found a few particulars of the work done by the present Home.

It would be very appropriate were the fund completed by the 22nd of June, and the Committee will feel obliged if you will kindly fill up the annexed form and send it with the amount of your subscription to the Hon. Treasurer, Mr. R. Inglis Runciman.

Subscriptions may be paid into the following Banks to the credit of "The Victoria Commemoration Fund," viz:—
 The London & River Plate Bank.
 The British Bank & South America.
 The London & Brazilian Bank.
 The Anglo-Argentine Bank.
 William A. C. Barrington, Chairman.
 J. W. Fleming, Secretary.

We are informed that the official arrangements are now nearly complete. The public are already aware that a telegram is to be sent to Her Gracious Majesty.

It is hoped that employers will, as far as possible, give their employees a holiday on the 22nd.

It is now arranged that H.M.S. Pinafore shall be performed in the Politeama on the nights of the 21st and 23rd inst. Full particulars as to prices and where seats and boxes can be bought appear in another column.

The Children's Special Circus Entertainment at the San Martín theatre will begin at 1 p.m. on the 22nd.

The performance will be over at 4 p.m. A lengthy programme has been drawn up for out-door sports to be held on the 22nd on the cricket grounds at Palermo Park; the full details appear in another column.

The Pabellón Argentino in the Plaza San Martín has been engaged for the night of the 22nd for a popular Promenade Concert. Admission will be charged $1 1/2.

As has already been widely intimated the pieces to be rendered will be of patriotic character. There will be an orchestra in the Hall and band in the gardens. There will be no addresses, but H.E. the Hon. W.A.C. Barrington will open the proceedings at 8.30 p.m. The programme will be published early next week.

Medals are being struck to commemorate the event. The medal will bear on one side a bust-portrait of Her Majesty with the dates 1837-1897 and the motto:—Semper honor nomenque tuum laudamus manebunt.

On the reverse are the British and Argentine flags entwined with a laurel wreath and the abbreviation:—In com. L.K. ann. acc. Victoria, Brit. Reg. et Ind. Imp.

The medal will be of silver, and size of a half-crown piece. It is being struck by the Mint, and will be sold at the rate of $5 2/3. These medals will be on sale on the 19th inst., at places which will be announced later on.

On the 8th of July, the Directors of the Prince George's Hall will give a ball with which the Committee will be officially associated.

British Hospital.

 Boys' Orphanage.
 Quilmes Orphanage.
 Salvation Army Refuge.
 Victoria Convalescent Home.

As the main purpose of the Committee is the erection of a Sailors' Home, they are providing for the entertainment at tea of British sailors in port at the present Sailors' Home.

In carrying out the above programme it is to be noted that the money subscribed for the Sailors' Home will be devoted to that purpose only.
